Copenhagen, November 8, N. S.

The following is the Translation of the King of Denmark's Ordinance, directing what Rules shall be observed with respect to Ships and Goods coming from Dantzick, Konigsberg, and other Places and Neighbouring Ports, when they arrive in these Kingdoms and Provinces, on Account of the Contagious Distempers which reign in Poland and in Hungary.

WE Christian the 6th, by the Grace of God, King of Denmark and Norway, &c. make known, that we have received Intelligence from divers Places, that Contagious Distempers reign in Poland and Hungary, and as it is to be feared that they will spread farther, we have thought fit, out of a paternal Care and Affection for our well-beloved and faithful Subjects, to make the following Regulation, in order with the Assistance of Divine Providence, to prevent and avoid the said Distempers.

1. All Travellers coming by Water from Poland, and from the Neighbouring Countries, who desire to come into our Kingdoms and Provinces, whether they be our own Subjects, or Strangers, shall be provided with good Bills of Health, certifying that they come from Places where the Air is Healthful, and where there is no infectious Distemper; in which Bills of Health or Passports the said Persons, and all those who accompany them, shall be described, and their Goods specified exactly, and the said Passports shall be signed or attested by proper Officers in all the Places through which they shall pass. Those who are not provided with such Passports, shall be forthwith sent back.

2. All Prussian Ships, especially those coming from Dantzick, Konigsberg, and the Neighbouring Places, as Elbingen, Pillau, Libou, Memmel, Windou, who would come to our Kingdoms and Provinces with, or take on Board, any Goods, whether they are our own Subjects, or Foreigners, shall be provided with Passports of Health, wherein the Places where they have taken in Passengers or Goods, shall be specified.

3. None of the Ships coming from the Places and Ports aforesaid, whether belonging to our own Subjects, or Foreigners, shall be permitted for four Weeks after the Date of this our Ordinance, or till we shall order otherwise, to come into any other Ports than those only of Copenhagen, Helsingoer, Nyborg, Aalborg, and Flensborg, and also those of Christiania, Bergen, and Frundheim; and when those Ships arrive off any of the said Ports, they must make a Signal, that the Commissaries appointed for that Purpose, may come out to examine their Passports, and if found right, that they may direct them to a Place, without or within the Port, where the Ship may remain safe Eight Days.

4. Any Ships coming from Dantzick, Konigsberg, or the aforesaid Places or Ports, must not presume to come into any other of our Ports, except those which have just been specified, nor to land either Persons or Goods in any other Place of our Provinces, till their Bills of Health have been duly examined, nor till they have lain Eight Days in the same Place which was appointed them; after the Expiration of the said Eight Days, there appearing to be no Sick Persons in the Ship, nor any Sign of Contagion, the Ship shall be permitted to come into Port, to unload, or load Merchandizes, as the Master pleases, upon Condition that the Commissaries take sufficient Care that, among others, there are no Merchandizes, by means whereof the Infection may be brought, especially old Goods, Cloathing, Beds, Blankets, Feathers, Hemp, Flax, Tow, nor Skins of any Sort, for which there shall not be Certificates that they remained a Year and a Day in healthy Places, and were there packed up.

5. If a Ship, whose Bill of Health has been found good, and her Crew in good Health, hath Merchandizes on board, which cannot be certified to have been a Year and a Day in healthy Places, the Magistrate of the Place into which the Ship comes, shall appoint a House at Distance from the Place, to which such Merchandizes shall be carried, opened, and laid 14 Days successively in the Sun, or Air, under the Care of the Ship's Crew, or Persons appointed by the Owner, who during that Time shall not have any Communication with any Person whatever. The Magistrates are to take Care to have the Places appointed for the performing of Quarantain, well secured by a sufficient Guard either Civil or Military; but after the Expiration of 14 Days, such Merchandizes shall be allowed to be transported into the abovementioned Towns, and from thence into other Places in our Kingdoms and Provinces.

6. All Ships coming from Dantzick, Konigsberg, and the Neighbouring Ports, and desiring to come into our Ports, shall be obliged to make to Places nearest to those specified in the Third Article of this Regulation, in order to put in there first, and there remain Eight Days, and to conform themselves to what that Article directs. After the said Eight Days, and having first obtained Bills of Health from the Magistrate of the Place, they are to have Liberty to sail for such Places and Towns as they shall think fit.

7. All Ships belonging to our own Subjects, or to Strangers coming from the abovementioned Places and Ports, and having no Desire of coming into our Kingdoms or Provinces, but only to pass the Sound, or the Belt, shall not presume to land any of their Crews

...Parole of the High Court of ...ners ſhall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Edward Clive,

Crews or Merchandizes, and they ſhall pay their Tolls to our Guard Ship. For this Purpoſe we have given the neceſſary Orders that the Officers of our Guard Ship do give Notice to all Ships coming from Dantzick, Konigsberg, and the Neighbouring Ports and Places abovementioned, that they may be inſtantly diſpatched on board the Guard Ship, and may be ſupplied with what they may have Occaſion for in their Voyage; but no Perſon on board ſuch Ship ſhall be permitted to go aſhore.

8. All Pilots, Fiſhermen, and others who have their Dwellings near the Sea, and more eſpecially thoſe of Drago, are expreſly forbidden to go on board any one Veſſel coming from the Eaſt Sea, much leſs to take into their Boats any of their Men or Merchandizes; but when ſuch Ship has need of Pilots, then the Pilot with his own Boat ſhall go before to ſhew her the Way, and keep at ſome Diſtance when he ſpeaks with the Men of the Ship. He ſhall take the Money that is due to him in a Diſh or Cup with Salt Water therein.

We expreſly forbid all whom it may concern, to act in any Point contrary to what is above, under Pain of Corporal Puniſhment. We charge our Vicar in our Kingdom of Norway, Counts, Grand Bailiffs, Bailiffs, Provincial Judges, Preſidents, Magiſtrates, Mayors, and all others, to whom this our Ordinance ſhall be ſent, under the Seal of our Chancery, to cauſe it forthwith to be read and publiſhed in the publick Places, to the End that all may be informed of it; and to ſee Obedience paid to it. Given at our Caſtle at Fridericksberg the 7th of November 1738. under our Royal Hand and Seal.

Petersbourg, Oct. 28. The 26th Inſtant the Prince of Bevern arrived here from the Army, and had the ſame Day the Honour to wait on her Czariſh Majeſty, who received him very graciouſly.

Vienna, Nov. 19, N. S. The Marquiſs de Mirepoix, the French Ambaſſadour, having received full Powers from his Court, did Yeſterday Sign, with one of the Imperial Miniſters authorized for that Purpoſe, an Agreement which has been finally adjuſted between the Emperor and France, with reſpect to the Court of Turin; and M. de Solari, the Sardinian Miniſter, is, purſuant thereto, to ſign at Paris the final Acceſſion of his Maſter to the Peace. It is ſaid that Marſhal Wallis has Orders to repair Panchova, if feaſible, the razing of which Place was it ſeems againſt his Opinion. It is confidently reported that the Saxons are treating with the King of Pruſſia about the Pretenſions of the Court of Dreſden to the Succeſſion of Bergues and Juliers.

Whitehall, November 25, 1738.

Whereas ſome Time ago a Letter was dropt in a Cloſe near the Dwelling-houſe of Thomas Medlycott, Eſq; at Cottingham in Northamptonſhire, directed to the ſaid Mr. Medlycott, threatning his Life if he did not forthwith releaſe Elizabeth Boamford, whom he had committed to Oundle Priſon: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in ſo heinous a Crime, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one concerned in Writing and ſending the ſaid threatning Letter, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof. HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, Francis Sorell, Eſq; at the Office for Taxes in the Exchequer, Weſtminſter, doth hereby promiſe a Reward of Thirty Guineas to any Perſon or Perſons making the ſaid Diſcovery, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders. Fra. Sorell.

Whitehall, November 10, 1738.

Whereas Information has been given upon Oath, That Anthony Silk, of Peckham, in the Pariſh of Camberwell, in the County of Surry, was on the Second of this Inſtant November, between the Hours of Five and Six in the Evening, violently aſſaulted in a Field, commonly called the North Field, in the Pariſh aforeſaid, and wounded in a barbarous Manner, by two Perſons unknown (one of them a tall Man, the other low of Stature, a third ſtanding at a ſmall Diſtance, ſuppoſed to belong to them) and robbed of Three Shillings in Silver, ſome Halfpence, and his Coat, Hat and Wig, &c. and left for dead: For the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Crimes, His Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

N. B. And as a farther Encouragement to ſuch Diſcovery, if any Perſon who has been an Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, ſhall, within Three Months from the Day the ſaid Robbery was committed, diſcover and apprehend any Offender who hath committed the ſaid Robbery, ſo as ſuch Offender be convicted of the ſaid Offence, ſuch Accomplice will be intitled to have and receive for every ſuch Offender ſo apprehended and convicted as aforeſaid, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, mentioned in His Majeſty's Royal Proclamation, over and above all other Rewards to which ſuch Accomplice may by any Act of Parliament be intitled: The ſaid Robbery having been committed within Five Miles from the City of London.

General Poſt Office, London, Auguſt 27, 1738.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy carrying the North Mail from London, was ſet upon and robbed by a ſingle Perſon on Foot, this Morning between the Hours of Two and Three, on this Side Kingſland, near London: The Poſtmaſter General thinks proper to make it publickly known, That whoever ſhall apprehend the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will, upon Conviction, be entituled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, beſides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, ſhall make a Diſcovery of the Perſon who committed the Fact, ſuch Accomplice will be entitled to the ſaid Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon. By Order of the Poſt Maſter General,

The Perſon who committed this Robbery, is deſcribed to be a middle-ſiz'd Man, had on a light-colour'd cloſe bodied Coat, with cloſe Sleeves, and a full Bob Wig pretty light, with a Paper Mask over his Face. He carried off the five following Bags, viz. Hartford, Peterborough, Horncaſtle, Louth, and Boſton; and likewiſe took the greateſt Part of the Letters out of the Enfield, Ware, St. Ives, and Royſton Bags.

Note, There were two Men at a ſmall Diſtance from him, ſuppos'd to be his Accomplices.

General Poſt-Office, Nov. 1, 1738.

Whereas a Bank Bill, D. No. 3848, dated the 12*th of September,* 1738, for the Sum of 23*l.* 10*s.* 2*d. payable to Anna Stalker, or Order, three Days after Sight, was ſtolen out of the Briſtol Mail upon the* 13*th of September laſt, and was brought to the Warehouſe of Meſſ. Bigot and Godin, on Monday the* 30*th of laſt Month, by one who pretended his Name was George Willis, and bought of the ſaid Bigot and Godin, by their Servant David Delavau, Nineteen Yards of white Paduaſoy, at the Price of* 9*s.* 6*d. per Yard, which came to* 9*l.* 11*s.* 6*d. which he paid to the ſaid Delavau* lawau by delivering to him the Bank Bill aforesaid, receiving the Overplus of 23 l. 10 s. 2 d. after the Deduction of the 9 l. 11 s. 6 d. The said George Willis is described to be a Man between the Age of 20 and 30, of a middle Size, and had on a Drab-colour Coat and a Bob Wig, and said he lived at a Merchant's near Tower Hill, that dealt in Spicery, which, upon Enquiry, appears to be false.

The Post-Master-General therefore thinks it proper, upon this Occasion, to publish this Advertisement concerning the said George Willis, describ'd as above, looking upon him as a Person who either robb'd the Bristol Mail himself, or was concern'd as an Accomplice in the Robbery; and that what has been already publish'd may be again made known, that upon the Conviction of the Principal or Principals in the Robbery, such Principal or Principals being convicted thereof, the Person who shall make the Discovery of him or them will be entitled to the Reward of 200 l. for each of them, who shall be so convicted as Principals or Accessories, besides the Rewards provided by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. And any Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Robbery, who shall make a Discovery as aforesaid of the Person or Persons who have committed the said Robbery, will be entitled to the Rewards aforesaid, and further, have the Benefit of his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Order of the Post-Master-General,
J. D. Barbutt, Sec.
